Thanksgiving In Campbell

How the Day was Spent in and Around the Orchard City

Last Thursday was the day of Thanksgiving, and surely it was an ideal day. The sun shone brightly along about ten o'clock and although it was a little chilly, it was an ideal day. Of course Thanksgiving would not be a real Thanksgiving if it were not a little cold, indeed, easterners think Thanksgiving is not a success unless there is snow on the ground and ice to skate on.

This year Thanksgiving day passed off much in the usual manner, except that all were thankful that crops were a little better this year than last year. In the morning a Union Service was held in the Congregational Church, Rev. Mr. Bolster preaching the sermon. After church games of baseball and basketball were enjoyed, according to the usual custom, and many not caring for them departed from town to spend the day with friends relatives.

Letter From Will Kellogg

Tells of Trip to Sisson—Had the Whites for Traveling Companions

"I promised that I would write you when I arrived in my northern home. We all got here safe and sound after a very long ride. During the night we passed thru Sacramento, Roseville, Red Bluff and other river cities. At day break we entered the great canyon of the Sacramento river. After a fine trip along the banks of California's grandest waterway we arrived at Shasta Springs. Waiting there a few minutes we left the train and visited the great soda and sulphur springs. We "tanked up" on the health giving waters and started again on our journey. After a hard climb out of the canyon we hurried up the home stretch for Sisson, arriving there about 2 o'clock. Father and John met us at the train and took us home to a good warm dinner.

The next day was Thanksgiving so bright and early we arose and prepared for a great celebration. The large basket full of chrysanthemums which had been given us by our friends in Campbell, decorated the church, and was distributed among many Sisson families to beautify their Thanksgiving tables. They were surely a fine treat up here in the cold and ice. (As I write the thermometer reads 18 above zero.)

Speaking of the flowers reminds me of a little incident on the trip. While we were carrying the basket of flowers along the Oakland Pier, a woman who must take life very seriously, looking at the flowers asked if we had had a recent death in the family.

After church we enjoyed a fine turkey dinner prepared by our "chef" (father.) We then realized the Joy of home and family reunion.

It may be mentioned that we were traveling companions with Edmond White and his mother enroute to their new home in Kalamath Falls, and they bade us a cheery goodbye as the train pulled out from Sisson.

Your friend
William S. Kellogg"

The case of Geo. L. Cooper vs. Dr. C. N. Cooper and John F. Duncan, Executors of the estate of Samuel F. Santa Monica.—The burning of the steamship St. Croix off the most inaccessible stretch of coast between British Columbia and Mexico has emphasized the imperative need of quick communication between the Malibu mountains and Los Angeles or this city, and resulted in agitation for a Government wireless station on the Rindge estate.

Seattle.—Archie S. Kincaid, a chauffeur, was convicted of driving a heavy automobile at high speed through the business district, and was sentenced to the county jail for ten days. This is the first jail sentence ever imposed here for speeding. Kincaid asked for mercy on the ground that he had arrived here recently and that he had a sick wife in Denver.

Alameda.—Ichabod Miller of 1111 Fountain street, a schoolboy, is at the White Cross Hospital with his left eye so fearfully torn through the bite of a fox terrier that he will probably lose the sight of the eye. Stockton.—City Electric Inspector W. A. Murphy is in receipt of a communication from the Board of Underwriters of the Pacific calling his attention to the use of kerosene lamps in business houses. DR. COOK SUFFERING FROM OVERWORK SEEKS QUIET

Has Submitted Data Necessary to Prove Claims to University of Copenhagen.

New York.—Another chapter in the North Pole controversy was begun last week with the departure of the data and reports which Dr. Frederick A. Cook compiled in the Arctic for Denmark, where they will be submitted to the University of Copenhagen as proof of Dr. Cook's assertion that he reached the North Pole on April 21, 1908. The records were taken abroad by Walter Lonsdale, private secretary to the explorer, who sailed on the steamship United States for Copenhagen. The records and reports contain about 30,000 words, and the university authorities probably will be several weeks going over them.

Suffering from nervous breakdown as a result of the mental strain under which he has labored in preparing his report for the University of Copenhagen, Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the discoverer of the North Pole, has left Gramatan Inn, in Bronxville, and is at the home of friends in Manhattan. His condition is such that even his most intimate friends are not allowed to see him.

Racehorse Failed to Make Good.

New York.—After three years of discouragement Paul J. Rainey has decided to retire the colt De Mund, the famous $45,000 failure. Rainey paid that sum for the horse after he had traveled a half in 0:46, but instead of living up to his great work, his performances were so bad that Rainey became disgusted and practically retired from racing. It is estimated that, counting his purchase price and the large wagers on him De Mund cost his owner more than $200,000.

Panama Canal Open for Five Miles.

Washington.—Five miles of the Panama canal have been opened to navigation. This includes the channel from the point in the bay of Panama. Steamships plying between San Francisco and Panama and the west coast ports of South America and Panama are using this part of the canal daily. Should the Buffalo go to Panama for marines to be transported to Nicaragua, this part of the canal would be utilized.

Two New Yachts for Tom Lipton.

London.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who has just returned from America, says he will build two boats with Fife, the principal designer. The Shamrock IV will be a ninety-footer, with about the same sail area as previous challengers, modeled according to the conditions of the universal rule, and the challenge will be sent in next March. Sir Thomas has the tacit assurance that a challenge will be accepted.

President Taft's Big Pie.

New York.—President Taft's fifty-pound Thanksgiving mince pie was baked in a Newark bakeshop. This pie, the largest ever baked in America, was taken to Washington by a committee of the Bakers' Union. The pie was six hours baking, and half a dozen experts kept careful watch on the pastry. It was twenty-five inches in diameter and three inches deep.

Chinese Smugglers Foiled.

New Orleans.—What is declared to be another instance of the working of a conspiracy to smuggle Chinese into the United States along the gulf coast, was frustrated by the arrest of five Chinese here. The Chinese are said to have come from Beaumont, Tex., following what is believed to have been their illegal landing at some port on the Texas coast.

Saved From Death by Close Margin.

Denver.—Pinioned across the railway tracks by a two-ton rail, which had fallen upon him just as a train was approaching, a railroad section hand was saved from death by a margin of just twenty-four inches. Mardi Gras Festival at Ventura.

Berkeley.—Following the lead of several art and civic organizations, the Retail Merchants' Association of this city has inaugurated a campaign against the billboard nuisance. A strong effort will be made to free the city of the unsightly signs which line the streets.

Aspirants for Office Making Ready for Primaries

San Francisco. — Political wiseacres are speculating upon the possibility of Governor Gillett and Secretary of State Curry being rival candidates for the Gubernatorial nomination at the Republican State primaries next year.

Just what Gillett intends doing is a problem. He refuses absolutely to commit himself. It is the belief of many that he is waiting to study the barometer of public opinion. If such is the case, the action of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, at its recent State meeting held in Oakland, must have made him feel that an announcement of a desire to again occupy the Governor's chair would not be received with paens of joy by the Republican voters throughout the State. The Lincoln-Roosevelt League emphatically declined to give Gillett any endorsement or even a word of encouragement. In fact, the mention of his name resulted in some rather torrid denunciation of the Governor and his course.

The action of the League has strengthened the belief among politicians that Secretary of State Curry will be the Republican nominee. They say Curry's record has made him the most popular candidate the party can put before the people. They point out the fact that during his eleven years' administration he has succeeded in increasing the receipts of his office from $27,518 in 1898-9 to the enormous sum of $940,725 in 1908-9. In a large measure Curry accomplished this by the collection of the corporation license tax and filing fees. It was at Curry's solicitation that the laws were so amended as to compel corporations to pay a tax from the time of filing their corporation papers.

This is but one of the ways of Curry to reduce the burden of the small taxpayer and force wealthy concerns to contribute a just share toward the expenses of the State government, say the close observers, and it is such businesslike methods that inspire the confidence of the people.

In some manner a story was started that Curry had withdrawn from the fight. So many protests were sent to him from all parts of the State that Curry was compelled to publicly deny the rumor. "I am in the fight to stay," he announced. "I will use every honorable means to get the nomination. Furthermore, I expect to be elected, and when I am Governor, hope to do some good things for the people of this State without increasing their taxes."

The Democrats have at least four candidates for Governor in the mentioned list. These are James D. Phelan, Theodore A. Bell, State Senator A. Caminetti of Amador and State Senator Cartwright of Fresno. At present, the Democratic leaders are making efforts to secure a large attendance at a State conference, to be held in this city on Jackson's day (January 8th). It is hoped, through this conference, to arrive at a concert of action relative to candidates for the State offices to be presented to the Democratic electors at the August primary.

Several of the incumbent State officials are candidates to succeed themselves. Attorney-General U. S. Webb has so announced. He will have as an opponent Frank McGowan, who ran for District Attorney of San Francisco two years ago.

For Secretary of State H. S. Morrow of San Diego, now secretary to the Department of Engineering at Sacramento, is a candidate.

For Surveyor-General, Victor Wood, who occupied that position for a term and then resigned, is being urged for renomination. He seems to have an immense following. He was an exceedingly popular official when he held the office of Surveyor-General, and should he announce himself as a candidate, it is thought that he would make a whirlwind campaign.

In the State Printer fight no declarations have been made so far, and it seems to be generally conceded that the incumbent, W. W. Shannon, will have no difficulty whatever in securing the Republican nomination.

Painful Duty of Uncle Sam to Give Nicaragua Spanking

Seattle.—Pursuant to orders issued from Washington early in the week the United States gunboat Princeton, Commander C. H. Hayes, sailed for Corinto, Nicaragua, via San Francisco, Sunday. At Mare Island the Princeton will take on ammunition and supplies, proceeding thence to Corinto, where she will join the gunboat Vicksburg.

New Orleans.—It is rumored here that L. F. Corea, former Nicaraguan Minister to the United States, is slated to succeed Zelaya as President of Nicaragua, and that his candidacy will meet with the favor of the United States government.

Washington—Definite reports to the Navy Department from naval officers justify the State Department in expecting the fall of the Zelaya government, possibly before the Buffalo can reach Corinto with its battalion of marines.

Nicaraguan insurgents are now engaged in what is expected to be the final grapple with the Zelayan forces.

Advices indicate that fighting is in progress at Rama and Greytown and that a general assault on Managua, the capital, will follow.

Arms and ammunition landed from the Norwegian steamer Utstein are believed to be in the hands of the insurrectionists, and prompt use of them by Estrada's forces is expected.

It is pointed out that it would require less than three days to transport the ammunitions from Bluefields, where the Utstein landed them, to Rama, and that, as soon as his compatriots were supplied, immediate conflict with the government troops was inevitable.

Secretary Knox of the State Department refuses to reveal for publication any of the immediate purposes of this government.

It is believed Salvatore Castrillo, the head of the Nicaraguan revolutionary party, will be the first minister of the new government of Nicaragua at Washington.

California Fruit Shipments East Break All Records

Sacramento—This season represents the heaviest fruit shipments East in the history of California, and next year will see still greater results by standardizing the California fruit pack, according to Manager F. B. McKevitt, of the California Fruit Distributors, who makes the following statement in a letter to the trade:

"The season of 1909 has shown the heaviest shipment of fruit that has ever gone from California, the total shipments to November 25th being a trifle over 15,100 cars, thus exceeding the heavy movement of last year, which amounted to 12,920 cars. While the season in general has been a fairly prosperous one for the California fruit grower, there are some lines which have sold at very low prices, and have entailed heavy losses upon the growers and shippers alike.

"This condition of affairs has thoroughly awakened all interests at this end of the line to the necessity for the greatest care in picking and packing fruit for Eastern shipment. By standardizing our fruit pack we will do better in years to come, not only by finding larger markets, but by getting more satisfactory prices."

Germany's Naval Budget.

Berlin.—The chief features of the naval budget provide for a total expenditure of $108,500,000, an increase of $7,000,000. The shipbuilders and armament requirements are estimated at $60,875,000, an increase of $5,950,000 being necessitated by final appropriation for the construction of three battleships.

Foreign Missions Get $5,000,000.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Announcement that the bequests of the late John Stuart Kennedy of New York, to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions would amount to $5,000,000 instead of $1,000,000, as had been stated at the time of his death, was made at the laymen's missionary convention here last week.

A SOLDIER'S LONG RIDE.

He Carried Report 832 Miles on Horseback for Gen. Kearney.

"Gen. Kearney was ordered from Santa Fe across to California with the dragoons and wanted to get his report back to Washington as soon as it could be done," relates Thomas Tobin in Outing, "and asked me if I would carry it to Fort Leavenworth. I agreed to do it and started with only a day's notice.

"I carried on a blanket, a lariat, knife, Hawkins rifle, with about a hundred rounds, a dragoon pistol and about two spoonfuls of salt. I depended on my rifle for meat and on finding Indian herds for fresh horses. I weighed about 140 pounds and was tough as leather. I got my first remount from St. Vrain at Mora, about eighty miles from Santa Fe and rode it two days, till I found a camp of Utes hunting buffalo and got a fresh horse from their herd in the night. I had to be very careful about falling in with any Indians, for they would have killed a lone man for his outfit, and half a dozen times or more I hid in some draw on the prairie till night or rode miles off the trail to keep away from their hunting parties or camps. It was very risky, too, riding into their herds, and roping a fresh horse and I always led him away some distance before I tried to change my saddle, so that if he made any noise, it wouldn't stampede the herd and wake the camp.

"I didn't dare to make a fire in the daytime but at night could cook a little meat on the coals and the little I slept was while lying on my lariat, so that my horse couldn't get away with it out of my reach. I followed the Arkansas as far as Big Bend and then bore off across the country to Council Grove and from there northeast, following the plain trail to Fort Leavenworth; in all, 832 miles, as measured later. I rode it in little less than eleven days and used nine horses; the last two I got from government trains which I overtook after leaving Arkansas."

WONDERS OF THE DEEP.

For the traveler crossing the Atlantic to fancy that his passage is to be a time of rest is a mistake, declares Alan Dale, in "The Great Wet Way." He says that as soon as one establishes oneself comfortably, determined to get the good of the trip, this is what happens:

An excited passenger rushes up, and begins:

"Come to the other side of the ship! Quick! For goodness' sake, don't miss it! Everybody's there. Come on!"

He helps me up, and drags me with him to the other side of the ship, where it is blowing a gale, and it is hateful. All the passengers are there, in agitated groups. Emotion is in the air, wind-tossed. Men and women are talking in all kinds of voice; they are armed with opera glasses, field glasses and telescopes. It is a busy moment.

"Look!" cries my chaperon. "Look! See where I'm pointing? Follow my finger. There! You've got it. You must see it!"

But I don't. I see nothing. There is plenty of water, and there is plenty of sky, but not more than usual of either. There are also many clouds. I see all that, and nothing more, and I say so.

"Nonsense!" he exclaims testily. "Here, take my glasses and look straight ahead of you. Now do you see?"

I see a black speck on the horizon. I hate black specks. A year ago I saw so many of them that I went to a doctor, who told me that it was indigestion. I had to take pepsin after meals for three months. Now this idiot appears to be intensely rejoiced because he has forced me to perceive a black speck on the horizon.

"It is a boat!" he cries, joyously. "There is no doubt about it at all. If you look carefully, take your time, old chap, you'll see the smoke. Yes, it's a boat, a boat, a boat!"

If he could see a Brooklyn trolley car, a Strand omnibus, or a touring automobile, I should be able to understand his excitement. But a boat! One would think that a boat was the most extraordinary and dramatic thing that had ever happened. One expects to see boats, for ours is not the only vessel on the Atlantic Ocean.

BEAUTIFUL ANTIQUITIES.

Beads Found in Egypt Which Would be Fashionable To-day.

Among the fascinating collection of antiquities found by the officers of the Egypt exploration fund and now on view at King's College, in the Strand, London, is a unique bowl with four hippopotami on the rim, a triumph of pottery work for the period. The animals are beautifully molded and are in a wonderful state of preservation. Yet the bowl was made nearly 7,000 years ago. There are beads in plenty, a few of gold and silver, some of amber and many of carnelian. One long string of the last named would be quite fashionable now. From the grave of a hunter were taken several weapons, mostly of stone and flint, but also a copper harpoon, which is of the greatest interest. A clay gaming board with eighteen squares and twelve men show that "draughts" is a very ancient institution.

Of a later period, 3500 B. C., is the skull of a long-horned ox found at the bottom of a shaft of a grave, where it had been placed with one of the haunches as an offering. The central teeth of both sides of the lower jaw are worn down, as by a bit. The horse was unknown at that period There is quite a quantity of hair on the skull, showing that the animal was a blond.

Entered as second-class matter September 30, 1904, at the Postoffice at Campbell, California, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

FIFTEENTH YEAR, No. 21

The health of a community is of first importance.

It's all right tew c.ow high up on the fence, but darst yew dew it dawn on the ground?

You can't keep a good man down, and a good man won't try to keep another man down.

"The early bird catches the worm." "Come early and avoid the rush." "Do your Christmas shopping early."

On the front page of this issue you will find an invitation to go to Los Gatos next Thursday and attend a "Clean County County Co-operation Council" in Ford's Theater, both afternoon and evening. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss methods of accomplishing county prohibition. The move is a very good one and one which should meet with the hearty support of all. If we could accomplish this great thing it would be of great benefit to us. As it is, the towns which are dry now are at a disadvantage, because the wet cities pull the young men into them, not only taking the best of our youth into the cities and their evils but enriching the coffers of these dives at the expense of the dry towns. County prohibition is the oniy thing, now and forever. We will help get it.

Lies 50 miles south of San Francisco, on the Santa Cruz Division of the Southern Pacific Railway, and is the central point of the most fruitful, diversified and senic section of the famous Santa Clara Valley. Superb electric car service places it within but a few minutes' ride of San Jose, the metropolis of the valley, Los Gatos, the Gem City of the foothills, Congress Springs, the medicinal virtue of which waters is unexcelled; Saratoga another beautiful foothill city, and as you ride past and through the thousands of orchard and vineyard homes, and merge into the picturesque canyons of the foothills of the evergreen Santa Cruz Mountains, you can but exclaim: "This is a goodly heritage!"

SCENERY SUPERB

With the Santa Cruz Mountains to the west and south and the Coast Range on the east, a majestic amphitheater is formed, the beauty of which can not be excelled anywhere. Campbell has an altitude of 195 feet. The cool breezes from San Francisco bay at the north insure an even and comfortable temperature throughout the summer months, while the winters are warm and plesant. Flowers bloom out of doors the year around.

FINE ROADS AND RESORTS

The Santa Clara Valley boasts of the finest roads to be found in the State. It has over 350 miles of sprinkled rural highways. In attractions for tourists the Santa Clara Valley can not be surpassed. Thirty-two miles eastward over a magnificent mountain road is the famous Lick Observatory on Mt. Hamilton, 4,444 feet above sea level. There are numerous mountain retreats within two hours' drive for those who love the camp and the sparkling brook. The sea beach to the southward 27 miles by rail or carriage drive, and through the most beautiful mountain scenery in the world.

A trip to the Big Trees, twenty feet in diameter and two thousand years old, will furnish a delightful day's outing.

EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES

Campbell has a population of about 600. It maintains a (third class) postoffice which distributes to 3,000 patrons, covering over 30 square miles of orchard homes. There are two churches—Methodist and Congregational, a first-class High School and Graded School, and within a few miles are two Universities, two Colleges, a State Normal School and several Business Colleges and private schools.

The Stanford University, with its marvelous architecture, is only 20 miles away.

NO SALOONS

Campbell has a complete water system of its own. It has electric lights and power for mechanical purposes, which is distributed throughout the orchard district. A telephone exchange serves over 40,000 people. A prohibitory clause in all deeds to property within the town limits, prevents the saloon from being established.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

Campbell has the largest fruit packing and drying establishment in the world, the best equipped cannery on the coast, catering to the highest class export trade, a fruit syrup establishment, lumber yards, planning mill and stores of all kinds. It also has a weekly newspaper and modern job printing plant. The Bank of Campbell, with individual deposits amounting to a quarter of a million dollars, is a fair indication of the prosperity of the community.

FRUIT CENTER

Campbell is pre-eminently a fruit center, and offers unusual opportunities for profitable investment, whether it be a large commercial orchard, a chicken ranch, or a small orchard home adapted to those who want to earn a few hundred dollars a year to supplement a limited income or annuity. The Campbell fruit district is noted for the quality of its fruit, and for this reason has become a trade center. The man with a few boxes of fruit has the same opportunities for selling his products as the man with many tons. Our large packing and drying establishments will have their agents at your door before the fruit begins to color.

INTERURBAN CONDITIONS

Campbell is neither urban nor suburban, but is in fact, as well as in name, an Orchard City—a city of orchard homes, with all the conveniences necessary for 20th century comfort. The demand for intelligent labor is increasing every year, and families desiring profitable employment in orchards, packing houses and canneries find tihs an ideal home.

LAND VALUES MODERATE

Acerage can be secured at various prices. Bare land, sutible for chicken ranch, hay, grain or vineyard, can be secured for $100 per acre. Productive orchards sell for from $200 to $500 per acre, depending on the record of the orchard for productiveness.

In buying an orchard here you do not buy a "pig in a poke"—facts and figures will be given you, showing what returns can reasonably be expected from your investment.
